Leader of Cuban Revolutionary Group in Dallas.

Dear Sergio Arcacho:

I am James E. Wilkinson, ~~the~~ husband of Luise Barbara Wilkinson, who was a coil assembler at ~~Curtis~~ Curtis Mathis Television Manufacturing Company during 1964. During April of 1964, a man about 40, a woman about 35, and their two teenage daughters, visited us at 907 Pindar Avenue, Pleasant Grove. My wife said the man was the leader of the Cuban Revolutionary group in Dallas, but I was not told his name. His wife stopped just long enough to give a Cuban cake gift to Luise Wilkinson. My wife said she met this man and his wife working at Curtis Mathis Co. when they had their plant in Dallas. If you are the person in this description, please send a postcard to my P.O. Box no. 15546. Shortly after your visit, my wife showed symptoms of mental illness and was led astray by an employee of Curtis Mathis Co. who induced her to try to divorce me. I want to ask you about conditions at Curtis Mathis Co. that affected Luise's and my own married life.

Yours sincerely,
James Ernest Wilkinson,
Graduate Mechanical Engineer
